

Important Legal Notice for Users of the ADHA Membership Directory

ADHA Membership Directory (“Directory”) – Terms of Use

The Directory is provided by the American Dental Hygienists’ Association solely and exclusively for its members’ individual, personal and confidential private use as a reference and resource. The Directory may be accessed by logging into the member’s only section _____ via a personal computer, tablet or mobile device. Access to the Directory may not be provided to or shared with non-members. Use of the Directory (i) for commercial or business purposes; (ii) in connection with non-ADHA related activities; or (iii) to aid or otherwise facilitate such use by a third party is against ADHA rules and is strictly prohibited. For example, the Directory, or any part of it, may not be used to create a mailing, email or other type of contact list for use in connection with non-ADHA authorized purposes or events (i.e., to promote your own business, services, products). Violators of these terms of use may be subject to discipline in accordance with ADHA’s bylaws and disciplinary procedures.

American Dental Hygienists’ Association Membership Directory Policy

The ADHA Membership Directory is published by the American Dental Hygienists’ Association solely as a reference and resource for its members. The Directory may only be used by ADHA members for their individual, personal and private use. Use of this Directory for commercial or business purposes, or aiding or otherwise facilitating such use by a third party is prohibited.

ADHA’s Constituent and Component organizations may not permit any individual or third party the right to use any portion of the Directory (including, without limitation, their respective membership lists and/or directories) absent a written license agreement approved in advance by ADHA.
